Psychopolitics in the Twenty First Century: Peter Sedgwick and radical movements in mental health

The work of Peter Sedgwick and in particular his classic text PsychoPolitics (1982) has a renewed relevance in the context of ‘austerity’, the privatisation of welfare provision and emergent forms of radical activism in mental health. This conference will provide an opportunity to explore Sedgwick’s ideas and assess his legacy in light of these contemporary developments. The organisers welcome proposals for papers/workshops from academics, service users/survivors and mental health practitioners.

Venue: Liverpool Hope University, Taggart Avenue, Liverpool L16 9JD

Date: Wednesday 10th June 2015

For more information on the conference contact Rich Moth: mothr@hope.ac.uk or Helen Spandler: HSpandler@uclan.ac.uk.

To join the mailing list or submit a paper proposal email: sedgwickconf2015@hope.ac.uk

Organised by Department of Social Work, Care and Justice, Liverpool Hope University and supported by: Social Work Action Network (SWAN), Asylum: the Magazine for Democratic Psychiatry, UCLan Schools of Social Work and Health, Journal of Critical and Radical Social Work